Learning WalkThrus has arrived!

We are delighted to announce that Learning WalkThrus is available now! A powerful, visual guide to key aspects of learning and studying at home and at school, it features 70+ five-step techniques devised by Tom Sherrington and illustrated by Oliver Caviglioli.

With a host of guest authors including Sarah Cottinghath, Peps Mccrea, Sara Milne Rowe, Christopher Such, Emma Turner and Jennifer Webb, this book written especially for students and parents. Sections include:

- How We Learn
- In The Classroom
- Feedback & Improvement
- Study Habits & Techniques
- Reading & Writing
- Independent Learning
- Learning in Subjects

Find out more about what's included in Learning WalkThrus here.

Of course, Learning WalkThrus are for schools, too! From summer 2024, our member schools will have access to a wide range of digital materials to support their work with Learning WalkThrus.

This includes slide decks for use in assemblies and study-skills lessons, customisable cluster tools and guidance videos. We'll also be running regular webinars showcasing how schools are supporting their students with our toolkit.

You can pre-order Learning WalkThrus from Amazon or directly from John Catt Education. Great savings are available for bulk orders, too. Enquire at John Catt Book Shop.

NEW: Updated Consultancy Support 2024-25

We are excited to announce a brand new, affordable implementation support offer for 2024-25. Schools can now select one of three flexible pathways.

The aim of each pathway is to support schools or colleges to develop and implement excellent processes for professional development, coaching and leadership of teaching and learning, working with the WalkThrus materials. These projects have had a significant impact in schools over the past 18 months.

We've assembled a brilliant team of highly-skilled consultants to support our work next year.

LATEST | PARTNERSHIPS

Two powerful partnerships.

We are proud to be partners with IRIS Connect and Steplab, two brilliant organisations who are leading the way with innovative professional development solutions for schools.

Our Teaching WalkThrus materials are now fully integrated into the IRIS Connect platform. This exciting collaboration means that WalkThrus users can now harness the power of video technology to supercharge their CPD.

Our WalkThrus materials are now fully integrated into the Steplab platform. This means that schools with a subscription to both Steplab and Teaching WalkThrus will be able to choose between using the action steps from WalkThrus, using the action steps from Steplab or using both interchangeably.

To find out more about how these partnerships can benefit your school, visit our Partnerships page online.
